We are very excited to announce that the rights to Bhava Ram's memoir, Warrior Pose - How Yoga Literally Saved My Life, have been purchased for a feature film by Actor/ Producer Arturo Muyshondt and his Hollywood-based production company: WolfGang Cinema.

Arturo Muyshondt notes: "It is a great honor to be entrusted with Bhava Ram's life story and to be working with him to bring this epic tale to the big screen. In all my years of searching for compelling stories to share with audiences around the world, Warrior Pose is a rare gem. It's a true story about the struggle and ultimate victory of the human spirit. On top of that, it's a beautiful love story between a father and a son -- the most universal of themes. I can't wait to bring this out into the world. Thank you for your courage, Bhava!"

Warrior Pose is now an integral part of WolfGang Cinema's slate of films and scheduled for production following the completion of two other feature films currently being produced in New York: "The Pastor" and "Maxi Kaplan." Warrior Pose will be filmed in 2015, with a target release date in 2016.

Warrior Pose is Indiana Jones merged with Gautama Buddha, a miraculous affirmation of the power of self-healing, a war story, a love story, and a spiritual journey of epic proportion...

Warrior Pose is riveting, beautiful, informative, inspiring, compelling, honest, and so very stirring to my heart strings. I'm recommending it to everyone. And I will be putting it on my reading list for my next semester's class on the history of Yoga. It feels like The Autobiography of a (Modern) Yogi.
